STEDMAN'S SALEM MAGAZINE. TS TO BE THE TITLE OF A LITERARY PERIODICAL, to be Published Monthly, in the Town of Salem, N. C., by ANDREW J. STEDMAN, a Member of the North Carolina

In offering to the Public my Magazine, I claim for the Editorial chair no superiority over that department of other like Periodicals; but I do claim for the talent of North Caro lina, and the South generally, that will be brought to its support, Southern patronage. And I also as a southern man, and the Editor of a Southern Magizine, claim at the hands of the Southern country, and especially of North Carolina, that aid support that will here, at home, establish, upon a firm basis, fountain of Literature, and exclusively a Home Literary Many are the Magazines now published in the Northern States that are flooding the whole Southern country. There is not, (it is probable,) a county in any Southern State that is not visited by "Harper," "Graham," Peterson." or "Godey;" while here, in North Carolina and the South, selected in person, at the manufactories, and will receive during this month, the largest, best assorted stock of Cabi-net Furniture that he has ever offered in this place. As he where genius unsurpassed and unequaled reigns, the literary talent that is brought into exercise is dedicated to the support of Northern Magazines, while Southern enterprise, taste has had long experience in this business, and having purchased his entire stock for cash, at manufacturer's loicest and talent bow in humble submission to such suicidal policy of Southern contributors.

The following are among the articles to be found in his Why, I ask, cannot we-North Carolina, the South-send greeting to our Southern clime a Magazine, acceptable for the many qualities that adorn the pages of the most chaste, elegant and Periodical?
